Delta Gamma Style Guide

In order to ensure that all Delta Gamma publications and websites represent the ideals and standards of the Fraternity, such entities associated with Delta Gamma or depicting its name, symbols, badge or slogans must adhere to certain standards.

The name “Delta Gamma,” the Greek letters “DG,” the crest, “Anchor Splash®,” “The ANCHORA of Delta Gamma,” “Anchor Girl,” “DeeGee,” “Do Good Sisterhood,” “#IAmASororityWoman,” “Do Good” and the badge of the Fraternity are all registered trademarks of Delta Gamma Fraternity.

The following terms are commonly used throughout Delta Gamma collegiate and alumnae websites and publications. Use this (in conjunction with the Delta Gamma brand identity guideline manual) as a guide when designing web pages or preparing documents. Anything that is not covered in the following Delta Gamma Style Guide will be handled according to AP style.

A

abbreviations Abbreviations are fine for informal writing or in formal communications as long as the first reference is spelled out: “The advisory team chair served for three years. As ATC, they performed countless duties.” academic courses and majors Lowercase in all uses except languages: An engineering major, a communications class, a French major, a Spanish class.

academic degrees If mentioning an academic degree in a sentence, the preferred form is to avoid an abbreviation and use a phrase instead: “Mary Smith is graduating with a master’s degree in psychology.” If abbreviating degree, use capital letters and periods: “They graduated with a B.A. in English.” academic departments Lowercase unless word is a proper noun (i.e. “English department” or “math department.”) academic titles Lowercase unless title precedes name without a comma: “Chancellor Green was a former professor of history.” Titles may be capitalized for certificates and addresses.

accept vs. except Accept (a verb) means to receive. Except (a preposition) means to exclude.

“actives” Incorrect when referring to collegiate members. Instead use “collegians” or “collegiate members.” adviser When an adviser stands alone, it’s spelled with an “e.” When part of a team, the spelling switches the “e” for an “o” (i.e. “advisory team chair” or “advisory board”). Note: National Panhellenic Conference uses the “advisor” spelling in all cases.

Adviser/Alumnae Training Academy Always capitalized; abbreviated “ATA” on second reference.

advisory team A team of collegiate chapter advisers, led by the ATC. Always lowercase.

advisory team chair Abbreviate “ATC,” but keep lowercase when spelled out.

affect vs. effect As a general rule, think of “affect” as the verb and “effect” as the noun. (There are exceptions but they are rarely used.) “They were affected by the decision.” “The effect on the crowd was remarkable.” afterward vs. afterwards Use “afterward.”

alcohol free vs. alcohol-free Delta Gamma uses the term “events without alcohol.”

Alcohol Skills Training Program Capitalized, abbreviated ASTP after first reference.

all right The dictionary may list “alright” as an acceptable word, but it is not according to the Associated Press.

allude vs. elude You allude to (or mention) a book. You elude (or escape) a pursuer.

“almost never” Do not use this phrase. Instead, use “seldom” or “hardly ever.”

a lot Always two words.

a part vs. apart a part means you are part of something. apart means you are not. “They are excited to be a part of the chapter.” alumna/alumnae/alumnus/alumni alumna — woman, singular alumnae — women, plural alumnus — man, singular alumni — men, plural or men and women mixed, plural.

Delta Gamma uses the term alumnae to refer to our members post-graduation

Alumnae Compass Formally the Alumnae Communique is a newsletter sent to alumnae officers from EO.

Alumnae Advisory Board Always capitalized, may be shortened to “the Board” on second reference.

alumnae association Always lowercase, even though it looks like part of the title: "Albion alumnae association." May be capitalized for certificates, titles and addresses. Delta Gamma does not have "alumni associations."

alumnae chapter Always lowercase, even when it looks like part of the title: "Denver alumnae chapter." An acceptable variation/alternative title to refer to an organized collection of members is alumnae group. May be capitalized for certificates, titles and addresses. Never preceded by "the." "Dallas alumnae chapter" NOT "the Dallas alumnae chapter."

Alumnae Development

Consultant Always capitalized. Abbreviate "ADC" only after the full title is spelled out for the first usage.

alumna initiate A woman initiated after her undergraduate career is considered an alumna initiate; lowercase, abbreviated "Al." Plural, alumnae initiates.

alumnae officers Lowercase ("vice president: membership") with two exceptions: "vice president: Foundation," "vice president: Panhellenic." Can be shortened to "vp." Titles may be capitalized for certificates and addresses. For plural, use "vice presidents: finance" or "vps: finance."

Alumnae Officers Manual Always capitalized; abbreviated "AOM."

Alumnae Recommendation

Chair Always capitalized; abbreviated "ARC."

a.m., p.m. Lowercase, with periods. Use figures with colons, except when listing times on the hour: "11:30 a.m.," "1 p.m." Avoid redundancy: "at 9 a.m. this morning."

among vs. between "Between" separates only two things or people while "among" introduces three or more: "The argument is between Sally and me." "We split the lunch among the four of us."

Anchorbase One word, capital A, lowercase b.

Anchor Games The umbrella term refers to the various "anchor" philanthropic fundraisers Delta Gamma chapters host, including Anchor Splash®, Anchor Bowl, Anchor Dash and Anchor Slam.

Anchoring the Future: The Campaign for Delta Gamma

The name of Delta Gamma's comprehensive campaign ending in June 2024.

Anchor Splash® Delta Gamma's official philanthropic project for collegiate chapters is two words, capitalized and followed by ®. (Ctrl Alt R in Microsoft Word.) The ® is not required after the initial use.

ANCHORA The ANCHORA of Delta Gamma (pronounced anchor-uh) The Fraternity's quarterly magazine is always all capital letters and italicized other than within the masthead.

another "Another" should not be used in place of "additional;" rather, "another" refers to a repeated noun with the same quantity: "Ten women passed; another 10 failed." annual Do not use the phrase "first annual." "Annual" can only be applied to an event that has happened two or more years in succession.

Annual Agreement Always capitalized, abbreviated "AA" on second reference.

anticipate vs. expect "Anticipate" means to expect and prepare for something; "expect" does not include the notion of preparation. "They expect a record crowd. They have anticipated it by adding extra seating." anybody, any body, anyone, any one Use one word when meaning any person, non-specific: "Anyone can be a part of recruitment." Use two words when the emphasis is on one single person or thing: "Any one of the members will be available to meet you." apostrophe Use in place of omitted letters and numbers: "I've," "rock'n'roll," "class of '72," "the '20s theme." Use to show plural of a singular letter: "mind your p's and q's" and "The Oakland A's won the pennant." Do not use to show plural of multiple-letter combinations: "DGs" and "PROs."

archives Lowercase if not using full and proper name: "The Frances Lewis Stevenson Archives."

ASTP See Alcohol Skills Training Program.

as well as Use this preposition to add information to a sentence that could stand alone: "John, as well as Mary, took the exam today."

Assessment Lowercase and do not use the word investigation.

Association of Fraternity/Sorority Advisors Always capitalized; abbreviated "AFA."

averse vs. adverse If you don't like something, you are "averse" or opposed to it. If the weather is bad, you could describe it as "adverse."

awards Lowercase unless referring to specific award: "Outstanding Senior Award" or "an awards banquet."

B

bachelor of arts, bachelor of science See academic degrees.

backward Never use “backwards.”

badge Preferred name for Delta Gamma golden anchor “pin.”

because vs. since Use “because” to show cause and effect: “He went because he was told.” “Since” indicates that time has passed. It can also show a cause-and-effect relationship, but the effect doesn’t necessarily have to follow the cause: “He went to the game, since he had been given tickets.” biannual Twice a year.

biennial Once every two years.

bi, semi Bimonthly or biweekly mean every other month or every other week. Semimonthly or semiweekly mean twice a month or twice a week.

bid Lowercase when standing alone.

Bid Day Always capitalize. “We welcomed new members on Bid Day.”

Big/Little Reveal The event during which women are paired together as big sister and little sister. Lowercase big sister and little sister unless referring to the Big/Little Reveal event. Do not abbreviate little to lil.

blind Put the person/people first; Never use “blind people.”

May also be abbreviated “vp:” A colon always follows vice president or vp. For plural, use “vice presidents: finance” or “vps: finance.”

Collegiate Recruitment Consultant Always capitalized; abbreviated “CRC.”

columnae Refers to combined collegiate and alumnae activities.

colon Use a colon at the end of a sentence to introduce lists, tabulations, text, examples, etc. It is also effective in showing emphasis: "Mary had only one hobby: dancing."

colony/colonization Do not use. See establishment/re-establishment.

comma Do not use a comma before "and" in a sequence unless it adds clarity: "red, blue and yellow" or "red and blue, yellow and green, and orange and purple."

compared to vs. compared with Use "compared to" to illustrate that two things are similar: "They compared their work for women's rights to Susan B. Anthony's campaign for women's suffrage." Use "compared with" to illustrate the differences a comparison draws: "Ann has a 3.5 GPA, compared with Jim's 2.9."

compose vs. comprise Compose means to create or put together. It commonly is used in both the active and passive voices: They composed a song. The United States is composed of 50 states. The zoo is composed of many animals. Comprise means to contain, to include all or embrace. It is best used only in the active voice, followed by a direct object: The United States comprises 50 states. The jury comprises five men and seven women. The zoo comprises many animals.

Constitution Always capitalize when referring to the Delta Gamma Fraternity or Foundation Constitution.

Continuous Open Bidding Always capitalized; abbreviated "COB."

contractions Contractions like "won't" and "didn't" are informal. Avoid in any formal communications.

percent Use the % symbol in most cases.

people of color, racial minority The terms people of color and racial minority/minorities are generally acceptable terms to describe people of races other than white in the United States. Avoid using POC. When talking about just one group, be specific: Chinese Americans or members of the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida, for example. Be mindful that some Native Americans say the terms people of color and racial minority fall short by not encompassing their sovereign status. Avoid referring to an individual as a minority unless in a quotation.

philanthropy Always lowercase.

pledge vs. new member “New member” is the correct term. When used as a verb, pledge is acceptable. Example: “I pledged Delta Gamma in 2005” potential new member Lowercase; abbreviated PNM.

Patricia Peterson Danielson Award Abbreviated to “PPD” on second reference.

preference round, preference ceremony Lowercase.

prefixes Generally do not hyphenate when using a prefix with a word starting with a consonant. Three rules are constant: Use a hyphen if the prefix ends in a vowel and the word that follows begins with the same vowel. Exceptions: cooperate, coordinate and double-e combinations such as preestablish, preeminent, preeclampsia, preempt. Use a hyphen if the word that follows is capitalized. Use a hyphen to join doubled prefixes: sub-subparagraph.

prep week The term for the week of preparation prior to recruitment.

Presidents Academy Always capitalized, no apostrophe after the “s.”

primary recruitment Term used to describe traditional recruitment (previously known as formal recruitment).

Professional Resource Personnel Capitalized, abbreviated “PRO.”

professor Never abbreviate.

The Pursuit Always capitalized; Delta Gamma's eLearning platform.

Q

Quota Always capitalize per NPC guidelines. The number of potential new members to which each chapter can offer bids during primary recruitment.

quotation marks Periods and commas always go within quotation marks. Dashes, semicolons, question marks and exclamation points go within quotes when they apply to the quoted matter only.

R

race Consider carefully when deciding whether to identify people by race. Often, it is an irrelevant factor and drawing unnecessary attention to someone's race or ethnicity can be interpreted as bigotry. There are, however, occasions when race is pertinent:

- In stories that involve significant, groundbreaking or historic events, such as being elected U.S. president, being named to the U.S. Supreme Court or other notable occurrences. Barack Obama was the first black U.S. president. Sonia Sotomayor is the first Hispanic justice of the U.S. Supreme Court. Jeremy Lin is the first American-born NBA player of Chinese or Taiwanese descent.
- When reporting a demonstration, disturbance or other conflict involving race (including verbal conflicts), or issues like civil rights.

- Include racial or ethnic details only when they are clearly relevant and that relevance is explicit in the story.
- Do not use a derogatory term except in rare circumstances -- when it is crucial to the story or the understanding of a news event. Flag the contents in an editor's note.

Recommendation Form

Delta Gamma's official Recommendation Form is completed by initiated members as a means of recommending a potential new member during collegiate recruitment. Capitalize. Do not use Sponsor Form or rec form.

Recruitment Preparation

Workshop (RPW) singular preparation, can be abbreviated to RPW.

reelect, reelected, reelection No hyphen.

reestablish/ment No hyphen.

region; regional Lowercase unless referring to specific region “Region 8.”

Regional Alumnae Specialist

Capitalized, abbreviated “RAS.” Using the term “RASer” is incorrect.

Regional Collegiate Specialist

Capitalized, abbreviated “RCS.”

Regional Collegiate Recruitment

Specialist Capitalized, abbreviated “RCRS.”

Regional Director Capitalized, abbreviated “RD.”

Regional Finance Specialist

Capitalized, abbreviated “RFS.”

Regional Foundation

Coordinator Capitalized, abbreviated “RFNC.”

resign/resignation of membership (referenced in deactivate entry).

reinstate/reinstatement The process for which a former member can apply to become an active alumna.

release figure methodology

Lowercase, but capitalize abbreviation “RFM.”

ritual Capitalize when referring to specific Delta Gamma rituals: “Oath of Friendship Ritual.” Do not capitalize when referring to general rituals.

RSVP The abbreviation for the French repondez s'il vous plait, it means please reply.

rush vs. recruitment

“recruitment” is the correct term: “Beta Beta chapter recruited potential new members.” Lowercase.

S

scholarship Capitalize only when referring to a specific scholarship: She received the Mildred Baynard Scholarship. Eva was a scholarship recipient last year.

seasons Lowercase spring, summer, fall, winter unless part of a formal name: “Convention will happen in the summer,” “the Summer ANCHORA.”

sesquicentennial refers to the 2022-2024 biennium celebration of 150 years of Delta Gamma. When used broadly, it refers to all celebration events hosted by EO and locally. “150” or “150 years” is an acceptable alternative to “sesquicentennial.” 150th with a th or superscript th should not be used for accessibility purposes.

- Sesquicentennial should be used in formal/tradition-based communication (invitations, ceremonies, ritual, etc.) but alternates or combinations may be used in general writing.

- The sesquicentennial should be referred to as a biennium rather than a single year.
- This is consistent with how we stylized language for our centennial. While the 150 year anniversary is in 2023, our sesquicentennial will span from Convention 2022 through Convention 2024.
- Always capitalize both words when using Sesquicentennial Biennium.
- Always lowercase sesquicentennial when used without biennium.

Service for Sight Always capitalized; comes third in order of Foundation's three areas of support.

Sisters Helping Sisters: Need-Based Scholarships Foundation academic scholarships designated to assist collegiate members who have proven financial need. Always capitalized.

slating, elections and transition Lowercase, abbreviated SET after first reference.

Sponsor Form Do not use. See Recommendation Form.

Statement of Obligation Review Always capitalized; abbreviated to SOR; "a SOR" not "an SOR".

state names Always spell out states unless part of an address in a directory or on an envelope. Use a comma after state in sentence. "Columbus, Ohio, will get snow today."

stationary vs. stationery To stand still is to be "stationary." Writing paper is "stationery."

status May refer to an individual member's standing with the Fraternity or may mean a chapter is "on report" with the Fraternity. Capitalize specific statuses, for example Support Status:

Operations, Poor Standing: Compliance, etc.

student body Always lowercase.

subcommittee One word, no hyphen.

snap bidding An option available to chapters that did not match to quota during bid matching.

T

Tables That Bloom Delta Gamma's signature alumnae fundraising project is always capitalized.

tax deductible Hyphenate when used as a noun, do not when used as an adjective. "The donation was tax deductible" or "They gave a tax-deductible donation." Never use "non-tax deductible" when referring to something not tax deductible.

three areas of support When referring to the three areas of support of the Delta Gamma Foundation, be sure to put them in order and note the capitalization: Individual Member Support, Training and Programming, and Service for Sight.

title Capitalize prior to name, "Executive Director Jane Delta Gamma." Lowercase if the title follows the name or appears on its own, "Jane Delta Gamma is the executive director."

time zones Capitalize the full name of time zones: Eastern Time. The abbreviations ET, CT, etc., are acceptable on first reference only if the abbreviation is linked to a clock reading: 9 a.m. PT. List both ET and PT on all references.

Total Always capitalize per NPC guidelines.

toward vs. towards always use "toward."

Training and Programming

Always capitalize; comes second in order of Foundation's three areas of support.

Treasurer Capitalized when referring to the Council or Board of Trustees Treasurer. Collegiate and alumnae chapters use vice president: finance, lowercase.

trustee Do not capitalize unless used in full term Board of Trustees or Council Trustee.

T-shirt Always capital T and include a hyphen.

U

Undergraduate Interfraternity Institute Always capitalize, abbreviate UIFI.

undergraduate scholarships Capitalize only when part of a specific scholarship name.

United States Spell out when used as a noun. Use U.S. only as an adjective.

United States Association of Blind Athletes Always capitalized; abbreviated "USABA."

university Capitalize only when used with the actual school name. Do not use this term. Instead use campus or institution.

V

vice president See officers or Council Trustee.

visually impaired Never hyphenated.

Virtual Collegiate Recruitment Specialist Always capitalized; abbreviated "VCRC."

W

web Lowercase.

webinar One word, lowercase.

website One word, lowercase.

weeklong, yearlong One word, no hyphen.

well, good Well is an adverb, good is an adjective.

who's vs. whose Who's is a contraction for who is, not a possession: "Who's there?" Whose is possessive: "I do not know whose badge it is."

who vs. whom Who is the word when someone is the subject of a sentence, clause or phrase. Whom is used when someone is the object of a verb or preposition.

woman Use woman or women, not girl(s) when referring to Delta Gamma members. Use the word "member(s)" to be inclusive when possible.

work week Do not use. See prep week.

working group(s) Lowercase, refers to staff-driven groups; can be abbreviated to "WG" on second reference.

XYZ ---

Xcelasone (excel-as-one) always capitalized; DG's alcohol education platform year-end Always hyphenate.

years Use figures: "1980." Use an s without an apostrophe to indicate decades or centuries: "the 1980s," "the 1900s." Use an apostrophe for omitted numbers. The bottom of an apostrophe always points to the left: "She was born in the early '80s." No apostrophe is needed if the remaining numbers are preceded by an en dash: "1980-81."

ZIP codes Use all caps for ZIP, but always lowercase the word code. Do not put a comma between the state name and the ZIP code: "Columbus, OH 43221." Use Postal Code when referring to international addresses. (Canadian sister-preference)

Collegiate Chapter Names

The bold type indicates DG Style and the correct usage to combine the Greek chapter name or letters and the school name. Separate the two by an en dash with no spaces: Eta-Akron. This list is sorted by the Greek alphabet, you may also sort by English alphabet order.
