NPC Manual of Information (MOI)

- Above any other document or manual, the NPC Manual of Information (MOI, 24th Edition, 2019) is the primary resource for guiding a College Panhellenic.
- The MOI includes NPC's Unanimous Agreements, policies and best practices.
- When in doubt, always turn to the MOI.
- The MOI can be accessed on the DG Library.

The MOI also includes:

- General NPC information
- History of all member organizations
- Policies and best practices
- Model constitution and bylaws
- Templates for model bylaws, code of ethics and recruitment guidelines
- Membership recruitment handbook
- Recruitment Counselor training
- College Panhellenic programs
- Extension procedures
- Resource information
- Judicial procedures handbook

NPC Unanimous Agreements

- Unanimous Agreements (UAs) are the principles, procedures and behavioral expectations required of all NPC member organizations.
- College Panhellenic Associations are required to operate according to these agreements, and all individual members must abide by them.
- UAs are statements setting forth the rights of women's sororities as private, voluntary social organizations.
- The UAs are adopted by a unanimous vote of the NPC Board of Directors and ratified by all 26 inter/national presidents.
- Every NPC Member Group and every collegiate chapter of a NPC Member Group must follow the UA.

NPC Policies

- Policies are standards and procedures created by NPC vote, usually to address recurrent problems or operating issues that local Panhellenic's face.
- Policies are adopted by a majority vote of the NPC Board of Directors.

NPC Best Practices

- Best practices are procedures formulated to help local Panhellenics and their member chapters achieve the greatest success. Adherence to these practices is not required, but is strongly recommended.
- Best practices are recommended by an NPC committee and approved by the Executive Committee and/or NPC Board of Directors, as appropriate.

SUPPORT AND RESOURCES

Membership and Voting

- A College Panhellenic Council is the association's governing body and is composed of one delegate and one alternate from each regular, provisional and associate member chapter at the institution.
- Each group has one vote and that vote is always cast by the chapter delegate.
- Only chapter delegates can vote.

ROLE AS A DELEGATE

Regional Training
Days

KEY ROLES

1. Exercise voice and vote
2. Liaison between chapter and Panhellenic
3. Be a good partner
4. Encourage campus involvement

EXERCISE VOICE

The fraternity philanthropy events require a significant time commitment and are causing unhealthy competition amongst Panhellenic chapters.

What can you do to change this environment?

Regional Training

EXERCISE VOTE

There is a vote before Panhellenic to bring a new sorority to campus. Not all sororities are at Total and therefore some chapters are not favor of bringing a new group to campus.

What should you do as the Panhellenic delegate for Delta Gamma?

Regional Training
Days

LIAISON BETWEEN CHAPTER & PANHELLENIC

How do you relay the information from Panhellenic meetings to your chapter?

Regional Training
Days

Being a Liaison

- It's not what you say, it's how you say it!
- Panhellenic board
- Collaborate with other CMT officers
- Pay attention to the issues that matter to your chapter – ask them what they'd like you to bring to the next Panhellenic meeting
- Take a sister with you to Panhellenic meetings

Good Partner

Delta Gamma is extremely competitive with the other groups on campus. DG doesn't support other NPC Group's events. You recognize this is problematic but are fearful of reaching "across the aisle".

What should you do as vp:
Panhellenic?

Regional Training
Days

Campus Involvement

- Chapter members are involved in at least one other student organization outside of Delta Gamma.
- Chapter members are encouraged to seek leadership roles in other campus and community activities.
