INDIVIDUAL MEMBER SUPPORT

“This scholarship provides collegiate women not only financial assurance for their education, but also the emotional support in knowing that their sisters acknowledge and want to reward their hard work. It ultimately enables greater success in our sisters – alleviating financial burdens and providing a motivational factor to strive toward. Scholarships of any kind are rewarding but knowing that an opportunity like this exists in the organization you belong to is beyond gratifying. It further solidifies that Delta Gamma is by your side through it all.”

- Rachel Witmer, Gamma Xi-Texas Tech,
Merit-Based Scholarship Recipient

Promoting members' educational interests is at the heart of Delta Gamma's purpose, and the Foundation is steadfast in its commitment to providing educational awards. Since the start of our student loan program in 1909, the launch of the first scholarship program in 1911, to the over 500 scholarships and fellowships awarded last year, members like you have paved the way for those who come next. With the rising costs of tuition and burden of student loan debt, your sisters need you more than ever.

"The Foundation supported me in my senior year of college and in graduate school. The summer before my senior year, both of my parents were out of work due to medical conditions. Our financial situation was really stressful, so receiving a Sisters Helping Sisters scholarship meant so much to me. I could focus on my studies and applications to graduate school. In graduate school, I received the merit-based graduate fellowship for three years. That support helped me earn a PhD and shape my career today by enabling me to take additional courses, present my research, and participate in networking opportunities."

SERVICE FOR SIGHT

Teddy, a Delta Gamma Hope Child, is a student at Blind Children's Center (BCC) in Los Angeles, CA. At BCC, Teddy has made progress on independent tasks and has had the opportunity to use adaptive devices that help him with learning. His parents share:

“Finding Blind Children’s Center when we moved to Los Angeles was a huge weight off of our shoulders. We were very nervous about sending Teddy to a public school, as many in our search did not have experience with visual impairments. The mix of children with disabilities and children developing typically at BCC lets everyone learn and grow together. Teddy loves school and I am so happy that he has been at BCC to grow and learn.”

Service for Sight has been at the heart of Delta Gamma’s philanthropic mission for almost 100 years. What started as a spark of compassion in 1936 has grown into a powerful dedication to education, access, and opportunity for people who are blind or visually impaired. For generations, Delta Gammas have committed themselves to doing good through Service for Sight. When you support the Delta Gamma Foundation, you light the way by providing life-altering experiences for those who need it most. Because Delta Gammas see things differently.

"Due to the rarity of albinism, people with this genetic condition often have never met another person with albinism until they become involved with the National Organization for Albinism and Hypopigmentation (NOAH). The creation of NOAH Family Camp sought to provide families whose children have albinism to form friendships with others like them. Through the work of the Delta Gamma Foundation, our organization is able to assist families attending NOAH Family Camp who otherwise would find it financially prohibiting."

THE LOYALTY FUND

“I love to make unrestricted gifts because I feel that the people leading the organization can make the best decision in using the funds. I know that especially in times like these, unrestricted funds are needed to continue the work of the Foundation. This allows my gift to be flexible and directed to where it is most needed.”

- Katie Schonert, Gamma Alpha-Tennessee,
Rose Circle Society member

Individual Member Support

Endowments and annual gifts allow the Foundation to award merit-based scholarships and graduate fellowships to members, as well as provide financial assistance through Sisters Helping Sisters: Need-Based Scholarships and to members in financial need through Crisis Grants.

"IF THERE WAS
EVER A TIME
I COULD TURN TO MY
DELTA GAMMA
BE NOW."

"It took a lot of courage to ask for assistance as I have remained financially independent for most of my adult life. I realized if there was ever a time I would feel comfortable asking for assistance, it would be now. Furthermore, if there was ever a time I could turn to my Delta Gamma sisters, it would be now."

- Kaitlin, Delta Zeta-Memphis

Kaitlin lost employment due to the Covid-19 pandemic and was awarded a Crisis Grant to help her through a difficult time. The Foundation is honored to be a pillar for members to lean on in times of trouble.

“Being a Delta Gamma means not only hoping for change, but acting on it. It means holding myself to a higher standard and pushing those around me to achieve their fullest potential. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to see these ideals in action.”

With initiatives in the areas of Social Responsibility, Health and Well-Being, and Leadership, Foundation funding is supporting values-based Fraternity Training and Programming to ensure Delta Gamma can provide transformational risk-management and self-development experiences for members to learn and grow. These initiatives not only prepare members for the challenges facing them today, but enable them to become leaders and change-makers throughout their lives.

You're assisting members as they tackle tough realities of life, like the effects of alcohol-use, sexual violence prevention and survivor support, and attention to mental health in a Culture of Care. Your support is fostering the high ideals of Delta Gamma, turning them into action.

"I was an Alcohol Skills Training Program facilitator at Colorado College last spring and saw first-hand the value of empowering collegians with education. It is so important for young people to have support from Delta Gamma as they face social challenges. And so my husband and I created an edowment for Training and Programming. Our gift will help alumnae volunteers gather the skill set to support collegians, to address issues in chapters, and to further develop themselves as mentors."
