About this Toolkit

This toolkit includes ideas for alumnae volunteers to recognize and show gratitude to the volunteers who dedicate their time and talents to supporting Delta Gamma.

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION WEEK | APRIL 20-26, 2025

National Volunteer Week was established in 1974 and is an opportunity for all organizations to express appreciation for the time and talent volunteers give to their causes. Each year, we recognize and thank volunteers who lend their time, talent and voice to make a difference in our organization. Doing good comes in many forms, and we recognize and celebrate them all.

How to Look Up Volunteers

Thousands of volunteers dedicate their time and efforts each year at different levels within the organization. There is a possibility that you do not know all of the volunteers who work to support the organization. Volunteering has a direct impact on the lives of our members and Delta Gamma would not be the thriving organization it is today without our volunteers, so it is important to recognize and appreciate them. All volunteers can be found in Anchorbase.

Recognition & Appreciation Ideas

Think about a time when you felt appreciated. Do you still have the note someone wrote, the gift you received or remember the time someone spent with you? What makes each of us feel appreciated may be different from someone else. As you plan out your volunteer appreciation, think about your volunteers and what would appeal to them: words, gifts or time. We know that gifts may not be financially possible, so we've developed some suggestions that are nearly no cost below.

APPRECIATION IS NEVER OUT OF STYLE.

Consider the following times to incorporate volunteer appreciation:

- At a meeting or event when all volunteers are in attendance
- Founders Day celebrations
- Their birthday
- The anniversary of their Delta Gamma Initiation
- At the end of their term

SEND “THANK YOU” NOTES AND MESSAGES.

Thoughtful words of appreciation are always treasured. Volunteers are known to keep and re-read letters from time to time.

- Send a heartfelt, handwritten note with personal details about how a volunteer has made an impact.
- Send letters of thanks to both the volunteer and their family – make sure the family knows how much the group appreciates the time they have spent away from home.
- Tag them in an appropriate, meaningful social media post. Also share it with the Fraternity accounts!

SPEND TIME TOGETHER.

Invitations to catch up over coffee or spend time with other members are another volunteer favorite. One of the many reasons alumnae volunteer is for the friendships and connections created.

- Schedule a virtual volunteer appreciation event for the board.
- Have a virtual coffee date with a volunteer to thank them for their service.
- Dedicate an event to volunteers.
- Create a named award in honor of a special volunteer.
- Nominate a volunteer for an alumnae Panhellenic award.

Executive Offices would love to see how you celebrate your volunteers throughout the year! Share your photos with us by tagging Fraternity social media accounts or submitting them to photos@deltagamma.org.
