

University Gate

We are now passing the Delta Gamma University Gate, which is located on the south end of the University of Mississippi. This naming opportunity presented itself after an engagement between local Delta Gamma volunteers and the University beginning in 2007. Work was completed in 2008. It is a reminder of the long history Delta Gamma has with the University and the local community.