

HONOR BOARD SANCTION TERMS GUIDE

No Sanction

You remain in good standing with your chapter and the Fraternity.

Warning

You remain in good standing with your chapter and the Fraternity.

Probation

When a member is on probation, they are considered to be in poor standing with the Fraternity and their chapter.

Terms of probation must always include:

- Forfeiture of the member's vote in chapter meetings with the exception of vote to initiate
- Loss of social privileges and may not attend social event with or without alcohol
- Must attend all anchored events Duration of probation terms are as outlined below.
- Additional sanctions as listed in chapter bylaws and standing rules A member is considered in good standing by Honor Board when they meet the terms of their probation.

If the member does not meet the terms of their probation by the end of the specified time period, a Statement of Obligation Review should be initiated through the Standard Procedure by the appropriate officer or a member of Honor Board.

Terms of Probation Include:

- Finance and Housing: member will remain in poor standing until dues or fees are paid in full or in accordance with the member's payment plan or until contracts are signed
- Scholarship: member will remain in poor standing until they submit their grades, or in the case of failure to meet scholastic good standing, for the duration of the academic term.

The probation term must coincide with the Master Calendar, including holidays and breaks (e.g., if a probation term exceeds the number of days left in the Master Calendar, the probation term will pause at the conclusion of the Master Calendar and will resume again upon the next Master Calendar commencing).

Delay of Initiation

Delta Gamma is a lifelong commitment and one that should not be taken lightly. Each member makes a commitment to our Fraternity to uphold all laws, policies and procedures and to strive to uphold our high standards and ideals. Failure to uphold these standards will result in a recommendation of expulsion or expiration of calendar year, per the National Panhellenic Conference policies.

The terms of your Delay of Initiation are as follows:

- You must attend all anchored events; and,
- You must strive to live by the high standards and ideals of Delta Gamma.

Officer Removal

Unless other penalties apply, you remain in good standing with your chapter and the Fraternity. Please ensure that any handbooks and officer materials are delivered to the vice president: social standards within 48 hours of this letter.
